

From certified translations for a well-known immigration lawyer to judge's hearing interpreting for a US Court District.

“

What sets us apart from the competition, according to our clients, is our ability to answer on the spot, for even the hardest of languages and the tightest of deadlines. We did a rush translation to get a person out of jail in an hour, we've provided several Mayan interpreters for judge's hearings. – Sean Hopwood, CEO of Day Translations.

THE IMPORTANCE OF LEGAL TRANSLATIONS.

People have been accidentally deported due to mistranslated immigration paperwork.

Homicide charges have been dismissed due to lacking witness interpreting.

Mistrial has been declared in sexual assault cases due to "two days" being interpreted as "a couple of weeks".

Companies have lost millions due to poor legal translations.
